Hilary Perry-Keene of Queensland

Not wanting to be left out even our continent "Down-under" received her share of the blessings of this great master via his disciples. One such is Hilary Perry-Keene who now resides in Mount Malloy, Queensland.

In her own words: "I first went to stay at Rishikesh and met his Holiness Swami Sivananda Maharaj in 1956...This was an absolute revelation to me. I believe was a rise in consciousness, and I had many wonderful experiences, as, so I was told, had many other people."

Subsequently Hilary visited Rishikesh many times. After leading a divine life for many years, in 1985 Hilary returned to Australia.

The following notice appeared in the March issue of the Divine Life Magazine of 1986 under the heading "Overseas Branches in Australia."

"Molloy Mountain Sivananda Ashram. The newly affiliated Branch has been functioning...under the able guidance of Mrs. Hilary and Roger...Regular bhajans, meditation, Hatha Yoga, spiritual talks, and evening satsang [are] conducted."

Since then other Divine Life Society branches have sprung up all over Australia. Currently these are located in Mount Malloy, Sydney, and Melbourne...
