

You Are Unique In The Eyes Of God

Blessed Atman! The key to blessedness lies in being aware of your blessedness. Each one is distinct and unique in the eyes of the Creator. So each one is precious and specially valuable to the creator. No one is useless. No one is lesser in the eyes of God. No one can replace you in the role that you fulfil in God's creation. You are most necessary and indispensable for that particular set-up, that particular time-space context. Rejoice and be grateful to the Lord that He has given you a role to perform. God expects each one to do what one is capable of at any given point, at any given time. He expects man to live as man; and each one in his own place can fulfil a task in his own sphere and gladden the heart of the Maker and contribute something to His Plan on earth. This is the truth. And to be aware of this truth is to be worry-free, anxiety free.

Whatever God thought fit is perfect. Whatever is - is in God's own Plan, in God's own way, and is therefore fully complete. Things are as they should be – this is the firm belief of those who have faith in the infinite goodness of God, and who are sure that in God's heart they have a special and unique place. Thus knowing, we should have great comfort in our heart, great satisfaction and contentment. And that is the secret of inner joy, the key to blessedness and the pathway to peace, serenity and inner calm. And then, there is no fretting, agitation or restlessness.

The Peace of God pervades the entire earth. The Peace of God pervades everywhere – without and within. The Peace of God is ever-present, ever accessible and available, ever-full and inexhaustible. Try to live in the light of this truth, and the heart and mind will be at ease, in the presence of God. We may no longer feel distressed in heart. One should rejoice in the serene calmness of the Spirit.

Every little fledgling hatched from an egg is unique to its parents; so is each being unique in itself for God, who is the parent of all. Rejoice that you are special to God in his infinite love. Rejoice that you have your special place and role to perform in this creation of God. Rejoice that His love is immediately available to you, for He is not a remote reality, but He is the indwelling Reality, the Reality that is nearer to you than anything else on earth. And Rejoice that within you is the peace of God as your own Self. Live to spread this peace.

God Bless You!
